

BANANA RIPENING PLANT

The banana ripening plant produces 26000 tonnes of bananas each year, and packages them along with around 3500 tonnes of pineapple and 1400 tonnes of kiwi and dried fruits and nuts. The plant is one of the most technically and environmentally advanced in Europe.

Headquarters
Kaiseraugst

Products
Bananas, exotic fruit such as pineapple and kiwi, dried fruit and nuts

Markets
Switzerland

Sales volume
32800 tonnes

Number of employees
19

Sustainability achievements
75% of total sales are organic and Fairtrade, and around 90% of bananas