

CHOCOLATS HALBA

Chocolats Halba produces around 16 500 tonnes of top-quality Swiss chocolate for retail and industry each year. Almost a third of it is exported. From the cocoa farmer through to the consumer, Chocolats Halba champions the highest standards of quality and sustainability.

www.chocolatshalba.ch

Headquarters
Pratteln

Products
Chocolate bars, confectionery, festive assortments, chocolate for industrial purposes

Markets
Switzerland, Europe, USA, Asia, Australia

Sales volume
16 500 tonnes

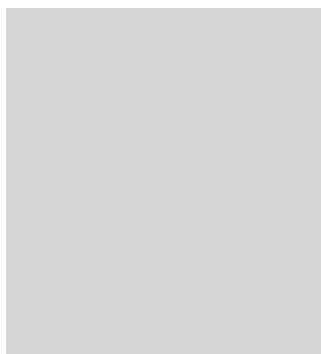

Number of employees (with Sunray)
380

Vision
The best and fairest Swiss chocolate

Sustainability achievements
Sustainability pioneer in the Swiss chocolate industry; 100% carbon-neutral production; 100% of beans are Fairtrade certified; 80% of chocolate sold carries a sustainability label; cocoa beans procured directly at source in combination with agroforestry and gender programmes as well as programmes to combat child labour

SUNRAY

Sunray purchases 46 000 tonnes of raw materials worldwide, mostly directly from the region of origin, and processes and packages them. 34 600 tonnes of foodstuffs are turned into some 600 products and packaged into 70 million pieces.

www.sunray.ch

Headquarters
Pratteln

Products
Dried fruit, nuts, seeds, dried mushrooms and vegetables, pulses, herbs and spices, sugar, edible oils, baking mixtures and dessert products, baking ingredients

Markets
Switzerland and Europe

Sales volume
46 000 tonnes

Number of employees (with Chocolats Halba)
380

Vision
Innovative partner for food products, playing a pioneering role in organic and Fairtrade articles, and a specialist for retail brands

Sustainability achievements
34 % of sales with organic and Fairtrade products